MEDICAL.

No Whiskey!

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
is one of the very few tonic medicines that are not composed mostly of alcohol or whiskey, thus becoming a fruitful source of intemperance by promoting a desire for rum.

is guaranteed to be a non-intoxicating stimulant, and it will, in nearly every case, take the place of all liquor, and at the same time absolutely kill the desire for whiskey and other intoxicating beverages.

Rev. G. W. RICE, editor of the American Christian Review, says of Brown's Iron Bitters:

Cin., O., Nov. 16, 1881.
Gents:—The foolish wasting of vital force in business, pleasure, and vicious indulgence of our people, makes your preparation a necessity; and if applied, will save hundreds who resort to saloons for temporary recuperation.

has been thoroughly tested for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, weakness, debility, overwork, rheumatism, neuralgia, consumption, liver complaints, kidney troubles, &c., and it never fails to render speedy and permanent relief.

"Jack High."
Andrew Johnson was a fine poker player, one of the best in Tennessee. He used to tell of a game he played with Grant in 1866.
Grant was then at Washington and visited the President one night. After a short talk Johnson proposed a game of poker. Grant, who was an inveterate player then, jumped at the chance. Cards were brought and they began to play. Grant lost steadily and heavily. The game was $1, call $3 and no limit. At last Grant said: "Johnson, I will quit; I am tired of this—foolishness." Johnson dealt and wouldn't come in. They made it a jack pot.

The jack pot went on increasing in size; neither could open it. At last there was $64 in the pot. Grant was dealing. Johnson picked up his cards; he had two pair, aces up. Grant looked at his cards and quietly laid them down. Johnson said:
"I will open for $20." Grant, without moving a muscle of his cast-iron countenance, leaned back in his chair and said slowly, looking at his cards all the time:
"I will have to raise you $50, Andy, I can't help it."
Johnson was a little surprised, but stood the raise. Grant asked him how many cards he wanted.
"I just want one; how many do you want?"
"Eight," said Grant carelessly. "I don't want any this time."
Johnson picked up his card. It was an ace. He bet $100.
"I will see your $100, Andy, and raise her $2,000."
Johnson said afterward the bet came near taking his breath away from him, but something told him Grant was bluffing. He felt a presentiment that he was.

"Grant, I will see your $2,000 and raise her $500." Grant clinched his teeth and his lips came together like a steel trap.
"I will see your $500 and raise you $5,000 better." "I got a little scared," says Johnson, "and I thought maybe he had fours on me. So I said:
"I'll just call you; what have you got?" "Jack high," says Grant, and with an oath jumped up from the table, got his hat and left, giving Johnson his note for all he had lost.—Louisville Commercial.

Colleges and Whiskey.
The gross impropriety of the practice of furnishing liquors ad libitum to Boards of Visitors has been well illustrated at Blacksburg. Previous to the commencement a wagon loaded with cases of wine and rums of whiskey wound its way from this depot and was unloaded at the house of Rev. T. N.
Conrad, President of Blacksburg College, where it was taken (whether in diminished or undiminished quantity transpires not) to "Solitude," the former home of R. T. Preston, now farm headquarters of the Blacksburg College, which was fitted up at considerable expense for the reception of the Board of Visitors. It will require a certificate from a sober man to convince the Blacksburg people that a great spree was not held at "Solitude." During the journey of the Board there, Col. Chas. A. Ronald, who went down about 9 o'clock one morning to see a member of the Board on private business was treated in a most ungentlemanly manner by one Duff Green, a member, who was drunk at that early hour. Green drew a knife upon the Colonel, who made him put it up. It is understood that the other members of the Board have taken some action in the matter, asked him to resign or something of the kind. It is a bad example to set young men, and President Conrad who was quite active in securing the law prohibiting liquor license in Blacksburg, would have better preserved his consistency both as a preacher and as an educator by letting this liquor business alone. On Wednesday after the exercises, the brass band was taken down to "Solitude," and from the hilarious sounds that emanated from the precincts, it was surmised that little of the sparkling wine or oily liquor would be left to sustain the energies of the College officials during the vacation.—Montgomery Messenger.

Disease is an effect, not a cause. Its origin is within; its manifestations without. Hence, to cure the disease the cause must be removed, and in no other way can a cure ever be effected. WAR-NER'S SAFE KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE is established on just this principle. It realizes that of all diseases arise from deranged kidneys and liver, and it strikes at once at the root of the difficulty. The elements of which it is composed act directly upon these great organs, both as a food and restorer, and by placing them in a healthy condition, it restores the system.
For the innumerable troubles caused by unhealthy kidneys, liver and urinary organs; for the distressing Disorders of Women; for Malaria, and for physical derangements generally, this great remedy has no equal. Beware of impostors, imitations and concoctions said to be just as good.

BETES CURE, for sale by the dealers in Drugs and ration Court of the city of Alexandria, on the 25th day of June, 1882.

John H. Luman, a creditor, secured with others by a certain deed of trust, and George A. Mush-bach and Kosevich Kemper, trustees, complainants, against Peter Wise, trustee, Warwick P.
Miller, trustee, John Kehoe, trustee, Alfred Lister and Edwin Lister, constituting the firm of Lister Bros., Benedict J. Burgess, Wm. K.
Downing, B. J. Burgess and Wm. K. Downing, of the alleged firm of B. J. Burgess & Co., defendants. In chancery.
Memo. The object of this suit is to enjoin and restrain Warwick P. Miller, trustee, and Peter Wise, trustee, and other persons, from making any other persons from making sale on July 1, 1882, as advertised in the ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE, of the lot of ground and warehouses with dock and wharf property attached, lately belonging to Benedict J. Burgess, and situate on the east side of Union, between Prince and Duke streets, under a deed of trust from Burgess to Wise, dated April 15, 1881, to secure $3,499.98 to Warwick P. Miller, trustee; and to marshal the liens on said property and ascertain their priorities; and to obtain a decree setting aside as fraudulent, null and void, a certain deed of trust, on a portion of said property and other property, dated March 4, 1882, from B. J. Burgess and W. K. Downing, alleging themselves to be partners, trading as B. J.
Burgess & Co., to John Kehoe, trustee, to secure the payment of $9,558.68 to Alfred Lister and Edwin Lister, partners, doing business in New York city, under the firm name of Lister Bros., which sum is evidenced by the three notes of Burgess & Co. to Lister Bros., viz: one of January 4, 1882, for $2,209.68, at 60 days, with interest; one of December 22, 1881, for $3,663.50, at four

The defendants, Warwick P. Miller, John Kehoe and Alfred Lister and Edwin Lister, comprising the firm of Lister Bros., not having according to the act of Assembly and the rules of they are not residents of this State, it is ordered that the said defendants appear here within one month after due publication of this order, and do what is necessary to protect their interest in this suit; and
